

If the sheen of performance fabrics is not Dad's cup of tea, then Antigua's new Heathered Win short sleeve polo has the look and feel of cotton, but the moisture management control of their Desert Dry™ Xtra-Lite collection. These athletic-cut polos are 88% polyester and 12% bamboo, and interlocked to create a fabric that is soft to the touch and appropriate for casual Fridays.
$50 www.antiqua.com

You do not need to be a neat freak to appreciate a performance golf towel. The Spotless Swing™ Golf Towel from BrightSpot Solutions® is actually three towels in one. The outer layer can be used on a player's hands or face, while the interior fabric is coarse and perfect for cleaning the grooves on clubs without any elbow grease.
$19.99 www.spotlessswing.com

If Pops is a Dharma Bum, then James Ragonnet's Golf's Three Nobel Truths: The Fine Art of Playing Awake will send him toward the fairways of enlightenment. Ragonnet walks golfers to the first tee with the expectations of a bodhisattva, and shows golfers that this game has hidden inner meanings that transcend a simple sport of balls and sticks.
$14.95
ISBN: 978-1-57731-902-3

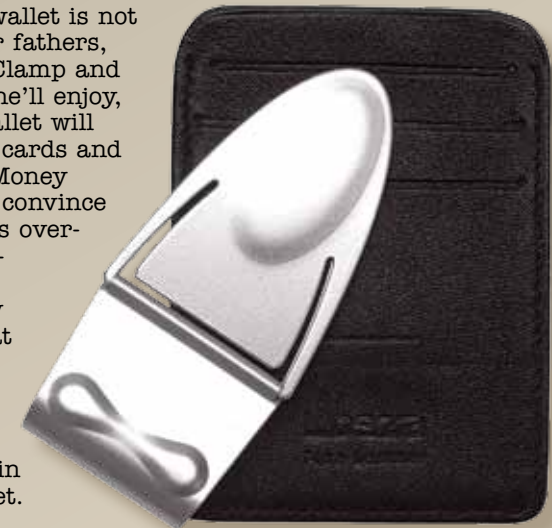

If Dad is a ball hawker, then it is time to upgrade his tool. The IGOTCHA® Ultimate XL golf ball retriever is compact at just 18 inches, but when extended it reaches out 18 feet! He'll be able to grab his ball, plus all those Pro-V1s that are out of reach with a standard ball retriever. This gift will restock dad's ammo for many years to come.
$39.99 www.prolinesports.biz

Dad's Day Gift Guide

After a punishing round, Dad deserves a great martini. He'll appreciate one made from Blue Ice American Vodka. Blue Ice is produced in Idaho with water from the Snake River aquifer, and is distilled four times and filtered five times for purity. Choose original Blue Ice, made from Idaho russet potatoes, or new Blue Ice Certified Organic Wheat vodka. Shaken not stirred, of course.
$20 Original Blue Ice
$30 Blue Ice Organic Wheat
www.blueicevodka.com

A Dad's Day wallet is not a new idea for fathers, but a Money Clamp and Wallet is one he'll enjoy, really! The wallet will hold up to 12 cards and 25 bills. The Money Clamp should convince him to toss his over-stuffed, sweat-stained wallet out, and carry something that doesn't look like he is smuggling a double cheeseburger in his back pocket.
$25
www.moneyclamp.com

Be like Freddy! During Masters week Fred Couples gave the kids a run for his second green jacket, but he also sported a hip, sneaker-style golf shoe. The Ecco Golf Street Premier has a pre-molded sole, cool metal-rivet accents, and will send the message to young flat bellies that dad's still got game, and style.
$140
www.eccousa.com

For the father with a gadget for every possible situation, rulegolf's latest innovation is rulesixteen, an all-in-one green tool. The compact utensil has a ball marker, a sleek divot tool, and it can be positioned behind Dad's ball to aid in aligning his next birdie putt.
$15 www.rulegolf.com