SIKU GLACIER ICE VODKA

Siku meaning "ice" in Greenlandic, is crafted from pure glacier ice that is up to 60,000 years old, from the Qalerallit Sermia Glacier in Greenland.

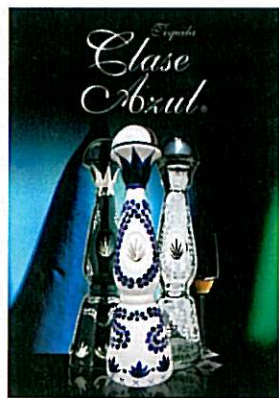

The proprietary "ice blending" process creates the only vodka in the world that transforms glacier ice directly into vodka without ever becoming water, resulting in an ultra-smooth, five-times-distilled, world-class vodka. Four-time Santé Gold Star Award winner. sikovodka.com
